Form MO W-4 is completed so you can have as much "take-home pay" as possible without an income tax liability due to the state of Missouri when you file your return. Deductions and exemptions reduce the amount of your taxable income. If your income is less than the total of your personal exemption plus your standard deduction, you should mark "Exempt" on Line 7 above. The following amounts of your annual Missouri adjusted gross income will not be taxed by the state of Missouri when you file your individual income tax return.

Single	Married Filing Combined	Head of Household
$2,100 — personal exemption	$ 4,200 — personal exemption	$ 3,500 — personal exemption
$6,350 — standard deduction	$12,700 — standard deduction	$ 9,350 — standard deduction
$8,450 — Total	$16,900 — Combined Total (For both spouses)	$12,850 — Total
+ $1,200 for each dependent	+ $1,200 for each dependent	+ $1,200 for each dependent
+ up to $5,000 for federal tax	+ up to $10,000 for federal tax	+ up to $5,000 for federal tax

Items to Remember:

- If your filing status is married filing combined and your spouse works, do not claim an exemption on Form MO W-4 for your spouse.
- If you and your spouse have dependents, please be sure only one of you claim the dependents on your Form MO W-4. If both spouses claim the dependents as an allowance on Form MO W-4, it may cause you to owe additional Missouri income tax when you file your return.
- If you have more than one employer, you should claim a smaller number or no allowances on each Form MO W-4 filed with employers other than your principal employer so the amount withheld will be closer to your amount of total tax.
- If you itemize your deductions, instead of using the standard deduction, the amount not taxed by Missouri may be a greater or lesser amount.
- If you are claiming an "Exempt" status due to the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act you must provide one of the following to your employer: Leave and Earnings Statement of the non-resident military servicemember, Form W-2 issued to the nonresident military servicemember, a military identification card, or specific military orders received by the servicemember. You must also provide verification of residency such as a copy of your state income tax return filed in your state of residence, a property tax receipt from the state of residence, a current drivers license, vehicle registration or voter ID card.
